VIII DISCUSSION AND FINDINGs / REASONING:

- (I) .IN Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (INDRP).
The Arbitral Tribunal after examination of the matter in details arrived the following conclusion of Complainant's Compliance of INDRP Policy. In order to obtain the transfer of the Disputed Domain Name, Complainant should, accordingly, prove all the following three elements to paragraph 4 of the Policy.

ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL
Dr. VEDULA GOPINATH
SOLE ARIBITRATOR

- (i) The Disputed Domain Name is identical or confusingly similar to a trademark or service mark in which Complainant has rights;
- (ii) Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the Disputed Domain Name; and
- (iii) The Disputed Domain Name has been registered and is being used in bad faith.

II Further pursuant to paragraph 6 & 7 of INDRP Policy, the Respondent have no legitimate interest and the same have been used in bad faith.

The Complainant has proved the aforesaid aspects to the satisfaction of the Arbitral Tribunal.

(III) The Arbitral Tribunal believes that the Respondent registered the disputed domain name with a view to sell the same and make profits by demanding unreasonable price which is proved by the email correspondence between the parties.

IV) In case of failure of default of Respondent in sending response or reply to the complaint, the Arbitrator is empowered to announce the judgment as he thinks proper and appropriate as per applicable laws.

(V) The allegations levelled by Complainant against Respondent appears to have been proved basing on the evidential value of the documents submitted by complainant.
